Greetings

Snowdrifters:

I hope you all had a safe and spectacular Christmas and are enjoying the beginnings of a grand and successful New Year. Here is to 2012 and all the positive and wonderful things that can be had by all. Please enjoy each and every minute of every day and take the time to tell all those you love and care for how much you appreciate and relish your time with them.

I want to thank all of you that came out to the December Club Meeting at Tio Leo's on Tuesday, December 13th. It was well attended and everyone was showing the spirit of the season and enjoying the evening with fellow members and good friends. In addition to (literally) a box load of toys donated by those of you at the November and December meetings (and some donations that were given through Nora Cole's State Farm Insurance Agency), we collected cash and check donations at that December meeting that added up to a grand total of over $500.00. Nora Lee and I had the distinct privilege and pleasure of delivering these donations to the Marine Corps Toys-for-Tots Collection Center in San Diego. It was one of the most heart-warming activities that I have ever done. The reaction and response by those folks (both Marines and civilian volunteers) who were part of the Toys-for-Tots Donation Center's team was just plain awesome. Your generosity was overwhelming at a time of the year and in an economic climate that puts significant demands on all of us. I only wish each and every one of you could have been with us for these moments; I will never forget it. Thank you so much, you folks are terrific and made me proud to be part of the Snowdrifter organization.

The first of the Mammoth trips is scheduled to leave on January 5th. Gates Ingram has done a terrific job putting together another great "First Trip" of the 2012 season. The remaining 3 trips are close to full if not already full. Contact the Trip Leader if you have an interest. They may be able to include you or wait-list you and changes are all too common as departure dates near. Give them a call. The Club is also sponsoring a trip to Big White in early March. Ken Zuorro is running the trip and Edie Pike is supporting his efforts. If you have an interest, give either one a call, but do it now.

Finally, see you at the next meeting at Tio Leo's on January 10th beginning at 6:00 pm. We will have our general meeting at that time with plenty of time after to socialize. I will update you on the New Year's Eve and Day Parties that were held at the home of the Coles. If you were there, you will know all the great details; if not, I'll fill you in. Sure looking forward to it. Please remember, especially at this time of year, to be thankful for all we have and take a minute to reach out to any and all members of our military and thank them for what they do for all of us.

The Prez

HEALTH & SAFETY

Hello Snowdrifters:

It's already time for our first trip to Mammoth! So it seems like a good time to remind everyone about protecting yourself from cold related injuries.

Hypothermia is a condition where your body begins to lose heat faster than it can be produced, which results in a low body temperature. Once it sets in you may not be able to think clearly or move well. This makes hypothermia particularly dangerous because you may not know it is happening in time to do something about it. The warning signs are uncontrollable shivering, exhaustion, confusion, fumbling hands, memory loss, slurred speech, and drowsiness. Because a person going into hypothermia may not know it, we need to watch out for our fellow skiers as well.

If you suspect you or someone else is in the early stages of hypothermia you need to do the following; get out of the cold and into a warm place, change into warm dry clothes if needed, get blankets or layers of clothing to bundle up in, drink a warm non-alcoholic beverage, and get medical attention as soon as possible. If someone is in severe hypothermia and is unconscious, send someone to get medical assistance immediately, stay with the person and don't move them if at all possible in case there are other injuries.

The other injury we run into is frostbite, a common injury related to cold weather and high altitude. Like a burn, there are three degrees of frostbite. First-degree is also called frost nip, which a lot us have had in our years of skiing or boarding. The skin damage due to frost nip is similar to what you would get from a first-degree burn or sunburn. The skin may feel stiff to the touch, but it is still warm below the surface, it appears white in color and is numb to the touch. Second-degree or superficial frostbite is a serious medical condition that needs to be treated by a trained medical professional. The skin will appear white or blue and will feel hard and frozen, but tissue below the surface is ok. Blistering is possible when the skin is thawed, which is why medical treatment is needed. With proper treatment, there should not be any permanent damage. Third-degree or deep frostbite is white, blotchy, and/or blue. The tissue underneath is hard and cold. This is a very serious injury. If you think you have frostbite, get to the First Aid Center or find a Ski Patrol, they will be able to start any treatment necessary and give you directions on what to do next. If you can't get medical help, you should get into a warm room as soon as possible, immerse the affected area in room temperature water, not hot water. Do not rub the frostbitten area with snow or massage it at all. This can cause more damage to the area. Don't use a heating pad, heat lamp, or the heat of a stove, fireplace, or radiator for warming. Affected areas are numb and can be easily burned.

The best way of avoiding these conditions is to dress for the conditions.

Remember to keep safe and always end the day before you get tired. We are more likely to make mistakes when we get tired and more susceptible to cold related injuries. I hope to see everyone on the slopes.

PROGRAMS & MEETINGS

Hello Snowdrifters:

The holiday's came fast this year. It was great to see everyone come out and enjoy each other's company even in the middle of this busy season at the December meeting. We were missing a few members that were returning from Aspen that evening but we still had a great turn out. Since this was the meeting before Christmas we once again participated in the Toys for Tots drive. We had tremendous participation. Our generous members brought lots of toys and collected $380 dollars cash. Nora Cole took the time to get our donations to the Marines this year. Our President Barry Cole was in great spirits with all the festivities and talked about the upcoming activities. We hope to see you at some of those events!

Hello Snowdrifters:

By the time you read this Newsletter, our first Mammoth trip is underway. We are praying for lots of snow! If you couldn't make it on the January trip, there is still time to sign up for the next three Mammoth Trips.

Check out the Flyers on the web site or in our monthly Newsletter. And if you come to our monthly club meetings you can obtain additional information by speaking with our Trip Leaders or members who are going on the scheduled trips.

If you are a member, come and join in on the ski trip fun; if you are not, join the club and participate with us. If you do not ski, but like to have a good time, come and join us on the Mammoth trips. There is plenty to do – off the slopes as well.

The following trips are still available, contact the Trip Leaders so you don't miss out:

Race 3 — February 9th – 12th
Trip Leaders : Pat and Larry Klassen — 619-582-7407

Race 4 and 5 — March 22nd – 25th full
Trip Leaders: Nick and Candy Cowell — 619-390-6659

Race 6 final — April 5th — 8th *
Trip Leaders: Jamie Ramey and Jim D. — 619 540-5154

Please note this is Easter weekend

The Big White trip is March 3rd — 10th.

Price is $1495 which includes round trip air, 7 nights lodging, 4 day adult lift ticket, all taxes and transfers. Ken Zuorro (619-449-6689) is the trip leader for Big White. He is an excellent leader and lots of fun. Many of you have enjoyed trips with him and know what a great trip he plans.

If you haven't signed up, check our Flyers on our web site or in our Newsletter, or come and enjoy getting together with new and old friends. You may also call the trip leaders directly their phone numbers and dates of each trip our listed above and on the Ski Trip Schedule toward the back of this newsletter.

Nick and Candy's trip is full, but you can sign up on a waiting list. The other trips have over 30 members already signed up. This should be a great ski season. See you at our January meeting.

Next BOD Meeting: Tuesday, January 24th, 2012

Welcome to: "2012" Snowdrifters

Well, now that we've all made it through 2011 Happy & Healthy.... I'm sure that we are all ready to jump into 2012. We are blessed with so many things to be thankful for this last year and many more to greet us in 2012.

At the December meeting it was really heartwarming to see all of the wonderful members bringing the mountain of toys for the toy drive. Thanks everyone for your support.

We now have 157 paid members for the directories which should be ready sometime early 2012. Thanks Rick.

We had fun at the Holiday Cookie Exchange at Nora & Barry's home. We sure did eat a lot of cookies, they were yummy, Thanks Nora!

CLUB RACING INFORMATION

Julio DeGuzman

Hello Snowdrifters:

Well, here we are, another year almost gone... I am truly amazed at how fast time seems to be racing by; guess I'm having too much fun. The Christmas Season turned out to be a very busy one, lots of fun events where I was able to socialize with some of you along the way. The cookie party, the Club meeting collecting for Toys-for-Tots, meeting the Marine soldiers that do all of the work of sorting toys and making the whole distribution thing happen, Hotel Del Council happy hour... I could go on and on but I need to get this article done as Debi is trying very hard to get the Newsletter out to the Club members before the first of the New Year.

"THE" cookie exchange started off the holidays for me and those who attended. We had 24 women and men who baked and baked. We had so many cookies, we could have fed the Marines. Barry, Denny, Peter and Al Funston (a business team player that works for me) were very kind to help us out with the gift exchange and also were our "gophers" picking up after us women. Jim Templeton came with wife Marti and just "wowed" all of the girls. It was great to see them. Thanks to the "gents". I have to give thanks to all who helped me get "the ball rolling" on Saturday morning: Gretchen making deviled eggs, Debi looking for ingredients to make salad dressing, Lina looking for pans to get the hot food in the oven and me still in curlers. See, I don't do this stuff by myself!!!! There were a lot of people that helped with the clean-up but a special "thank you" to Lori Kilmer who washed dishes and all the pots and pans and made sure that there was little left for me to do. The way that people jump in and help always puts a smile on my face. See the web page for some additional pictures. We might make this an annual event as everyone really had a great time,

We have 31 people that are getting together to ring in 2012. What happened to Y2K????? Twelve years later and we are just moving right along. We will have details of the celebration in the next Newsletter. We will toast those of you who are off doing other things and you know that you are in our thoughts. Maybe next year ??

A very Happy New Year to each and everyone of the snowdrifters and their families. May 2012 find all in good health, skiing our legs off and having a little après, skiing and spending time with loved ones and friends. I hope the activities that our Club put together and you attended were lots of fun for you this past year. See you in 2012!!!!

Love Nora Lee

SD COUNCIL UPDATE

Mike Sanford

For Your Benefit:

Rack up another big success for the San Diego Ski Council. The Aspen trip went off in a great fashion. We needed a little snow but that didn't slow anybody down from the partying. Especially fun was the "Nite at the Jerome". It was great fun and everyone seemed to truly enjoy meeting, laughing and having a little toddy before launching on to dinner in town. Not so much the prices at the St. Regis. Whew, they were a little stiff and we'll bank that for future schedules. We also enjoyed the company of the Cabernet Ski and Sailing club from the Northwest Ski Club Council for the week. The snow wasn't what we all wanted but it was adequate to keep everybody smiling throughout the week. Big thanks to many who helped out throughout the week in hosting, hauling and cleaning up. I want to add we had great support and cooperation from the other ski clubs that were in attendance, especially Action who had several attendees, all of which really chipped in their services for the week. The post party has yet to be scheduled but we do know the Hamlin's have volunteered their beautiful new home as the location.

With the first big trip of the season out of the way we will be moving in to the rest of the season, which for the Snowdrifters includes all its weekend trips to Mammoth and the two big FWSA opportunities, first to Jackson Hole, then to Europe and the beautiful town of Chamonix. Don't know the sign up status of either at the moment but all pertinent facts can be found on the FWSA Website at www.fwsa.org. As I mentioned last month, we now have eight San Diegans attending the FWSA International Ski Week in Chamonix, France March 9-16, 2011. FWSA plans the skiing activities and has a non-ski tour four out of the seven days. The non-ski tours include- Anacey a town called the Venice of Switzerland, Chilton Chateau, a day at the word famous city of Geneva, and a day of sightseeing Mount Blanc by gondola. The gondola ride is over 14 thousand feet. It is quite a thrilling experience.

San Diego Council participated in the Far West Board meeting held in Park City on the 1-4 of December. Lots of planning is going on for the first ever FWSA Convention to be held in Ogden, Utah. WE are very excited about this event. FWSA has already arranged a ski movie extravaganza on Sunday with three movies to be shown. We are working with the US Ski Team for their involvement in the weekend. Stay tuned. I'll have more on this as the New Year gets underway.
